

What you should know about becoming a Police Officer for the MNPD

The MNPD invites you to a one hour discussion concerning your future. During this orientation, topics will be discussed such as: how to prepare for the Civil Service/Physical Ability test, what you need to know about the hiring process, how to prepare and successfully complete the Training Academy, and how the Field Training Officer (FTO) program can help you prepare for a rewarding career with the Metro Nashville Police Dept.

If it has been your life long goal to become a police officer or if you have been interested but did not think you had what it takes, this orientation is for you. Come and join us for an hour long discussion that can put you on the path to a fulfilling career with the MNPD!
